

Apply these specific examples to general use

A acknowledgment antismoking	B benefited breakup buses	C coauthor cost-effective co-worker	D decisionmaking, -ers drachma, not Drachma Dr 50, not Dr50
E e.g. → such as, for example et al. → and others etc. → and so on, and the like EU (adjective) European Union (noun)	F focuses forgo (abstain) forego (precede) former—don't use; repeat the item or say "the first" formulas	G government (capitalized in operational documents only)	H hectare, not ha high-income countries
IJ i.e. → that is industrial (not -ized) country (and not developed country) interministerial intraregional judgment	K	L latter—don't use; repeat the item or say "the second"	M microeconomic, not micro (stand-alone) or micro- mid-1970s Mali's Ministry of Health; nonspecific ministries modeling more than half, not over
N neoclassical newly established rule (no hyphen with adverbs-participle constructions) nonviolent	O occurring offshore Organisation for Economic Co-operation and Development (spell out agencies' names as they do)	P percent, not % or per cent policymaking, -ers Prime Minister Bhutto; the prime minister fell	QR
S second, not secondly short-term prospects, but prospects in the short term sizable -size (medium-size firm, but small and medium-size firm)	T tradables transactions costs traveling	UVW U.S./U.K. manufacturers, in the United States/ United Kingdom under way (adverb) underway (adjective) workforce	XYZ